

LAUNCH EVENT

4.30-6.00pm | Thursday 8 December 2016
Collins Street Baptist Church
174 Collins Street, Melbourne

Indigenous Issues: Religion & Social Policy

Guest Speaker: Mark Brett (Whitley Theological College)
Responses: Naomi Wolfe (Australian Catholic University) &
Gordon Preece (Interim Director of the Centre)

RSVP by Thurs 1 Dec 2016 | mnelson@divinity.edu.au

New Centre for Research in Religion & Social Policy

The University of Divinity is pleased to announce the establishment of its new Centre for Research in Religion and Social Policy which commenced in October 2016.

The Centre will provide a means of engaging with the issues of the contemporary world – by stimulating research and engagement activity across the whole institution and by building external partnerships. Additionally, the Centre will actively build collaborations with the churches and agencies, and by commissioning and publishing research.

